INTERVIEW TOPICS for The NOTICER RETURNS

HOW TO LIVE AN EXTRAORDINARY LIFE | Why You Shouldn't Settle for "Average"

If you were given a magic wand with the power to change every aspect of your life, you would not use it to create average results. You would make your life extraordinary in every way—from your marriage, to your parenting, to your finances. In this interview, Andy turns conventional wisdom upside down by explaining the mindset you must have in order to achieve results that are wildly outside of “average.”

THE POWER OF PERSPECTIVE | Rethink Your Life

According to legend, two shoe companies each sent a salesman to Africa over 100 years ago. They traveled on the same ship and arrived at their destination at the same time. Within 24 hours, however, the first salesman was composing a telegram for his boss declaring the company's expansion into Africa to be a disaster of epic proportions. “Stop all increased production!” the salesman wrote. “No one here wears shoes!” At the same time, the other salesman was also composing a telegram for his boss. “Send more salesmen,” he wrote. “We have hit the jackpot. No one here wears shoes!”

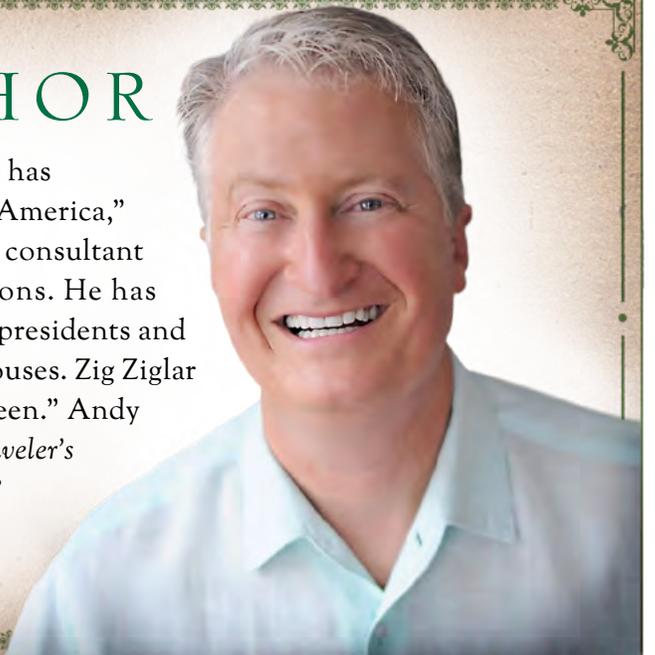

There is another way of looking at every problem we encounter in life. In order to see that “other side,” however, we need the key ingredient of perspective. In this eye-opening interview, Andy explains exactly how to inject perspective into all areas of your life.

RESHAPING OUR CULTURE | How We Can Change Our Culture from the Bottom Up

Ask anyone on the street how they feel about the direction of our society and culture and you'll get a similar response every time—we're not in good shape. Why? Because, as a society, we have yet to define standards for what members of a great culture actually look like! Andy reveals the standards we can begin instilling in our children that will guarantee a change in culture as we raise future generations. This is an interview that parents or anyone charged with making an impact on children will find riveting.
